SIGN - Sign Language

SIGN 120. Introduction to Sign Languages. 3 Credits. (3 Lec) F
Su Introduction to Sign Languages is designed for beginners to communicate with deaf, hard of hearing and non-verbal individuals and develop an appreciation of the Deaf Culture while understanding the history of signed languages and issues affecting the deaf. Gallatin College.

SIGN 220. Intermediate Sign Languages. 3 Credits. (3 Lec) F,S
PREREQUISITE: SIGN 120. Intermediate Sign Languages is designed for signers to enhance conversational expressive and receptive sign skills, to further develop fluidity, gestural expression and to expand vocabulary gleaned in Sign I to better communicate with Deaf, hard-of-hearing and non-verbal individuals. Signers will explore basic differences between American Sign Language (ASL), Signing Exact English (SEE) and Contact Signing aka Pidgin Signed English (PSE). Students will continue to develop an appreciation of the Deaf Culture while further examining issues affecting the deaf and the history and evolution of signed languages through exploration of Deaf literature. Gallatin College.

SIGN 291. Special Topics in Sign Language. 1-3 Credits. (1-3 Lec) F,S
Special Topics courses in sign language which there is a particular one-time need, or given on a trial basis to determine acceptability and demand.
Font Notice

This document should contain certain fonts with restrictive licenses. For this draft, substitutions were made using less legally restrictive fonts. Specifically:

Times was used instead of Adobe Garamond Pro.

The editor may contact Leepfrog for a draft with the correct fonts in place.