Doctor of Philosophy in Education, Educational Leadership

Objectives
The Doctor of Philosophy in Education (PhD) with an emphasis in Educational Leadership is designed for graduate students seeking faculty or administrative positions in higher education or positions within research organizations that require education research skills in highly specialized disciplines. The program addresses topics specific to Montana including working with rural communities and Native Americans on state and other educational issues. Graduates of this PhD program in education will be well-positioned to directly and positively affect the data driven culture related to improving the educational systems of Montana and beyond.

Program Flow
After being admitted to the PhD program, the student will be assigned a temporary adviser and should then meet with his/her assigned adviser. Actual courses taken during the initial stage will be based on the student's previous academic work and adviser/committee approval.

The program is designed to be specifically tailored to each doctoral student's related research interest while providing cutting edge knowledge and skills in research and theory. The program is structured to be completed in 4 to 5 years with full-time tuition support for qualified students provided by the Department of Education.

Total Credits 66

Residency Requirement
The PhD requires one year of on campus, full-time residency. The residency requirement consists of two consecutive semesters of full-time enrollment (6-9 credits per semester) in PhD coursework.

Committees
Each doctoral student's committee must consist of at least four approved members. The chair and one other approved member must be from the Educational Leadership faculty. Two other approved members will be selected based upon their ability to contribute to the student's studies leading up to and through the dissertation research. These two committee members must have academic credentials in the area of the student's program of study and be approved by the Head of the Department of Education and Dean of The Graduate School.

Chair
The student should carefully select a chair after thorough conversations with those Educational Leadership faculty members that he/she believes might have an interest in his/her doctoral research agenda and/or the ability to work with him/her toward generating a defensible dissertation. The chair will give leadership and approval regarding the balance of the committee's potential membership. The committee, as a whole, is subject to the approval of the Head of the Department of Education. The chair will facilitate program approval, comprehensive exam planning and clarification, proposal hearing, and dissertation defense. Chairs and members of a student's committee are subject to change. Revision to the program of study can be made during the course of study with the chair's approval.

Comprehensive Examinations
As PhD students in Educational Leadership approach the end of their coursework (48 credits completed), and prior to the Dissertation proposal meeting, they will contact their committee chair to discuss the content and format of the required written and oral comprehensive examinations. The comprehensive exams must be completed by the posted Graduate School deadlines.

Additional Requirements
The Doctor of Education degree must meet the minimum requirements in the For Doctoral Students section of the Graduate School's website. Additional requirements for the PhD degree beyond these minimums are available through the Department of Education. All PhD degree candidates are expected to be familiar with both The Graduate School’s degree requirements listed here: http://www.montana.edu/gradschool/policy/degreq_doctoral.html and Department of Education degree requirements listed on the department website.

How to Apply
Application requirements can be accessed through the Department of Education’s Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Leadership Application Process (http://www.montana.edu/education/grad/edlead/applications.html) web page. Application deadline is April 1st. Apply online through The Graduate School (http://www.montana.edu/gradschool/admissions/apply.html).

Application Process for the PhD in Education, Educational Leadership
Applicants are required to complete the online application and submit the following documentation via the Graduate School Online Application System (http://www.montana.edu/wwwgd/apply.html)

1. Completed Graduate School Application
2. Resume/Curriculum Vitae
3. Documentation of verbal and quantitative skills needed for the degree: The general test of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is required. Official scores can be sent to Montana State University (code 4488). There is no minimum score requirement. Applications are reviewed holistically and take into account all elements.
4. Academic Transcripts: Applicants must provide official transcripts verifying all Bachelors degree and Masters degree course work. Unofficial transcripts may be uploaded during the application process. Official transcripts must be sent from the Institution directly to the Department of Education Graduate Programs Office, 215 Reid Hall, PO Box 172880, Montana State University, 59717. Electronic transcripts are also acceptable as long as they arrive directly from the applicants certifying university. Please have electronic transcripts sent to edgrad@montana.edu. Transcripts from a degree awarded through MSU do not need to be provided. NOTE: We require an undergraduate and graduate GPA of at least 3.00 (on a 4.00 scale). Transcripts will be evaluated for rigor and academic fit.
5. Personal Essay: Suggested length is 2-3 typed, double-spaced pages. The applicant should briefly describe the following:
   - Education and other educational professional experiences
   - Research interests and experience including alignment with faculty interests and expertise and an example of research experiences using educational theory, research methods, and application.
   - Professional goals
6. Research and Data Analysis Skills Summary. You will be asked to upload a separate document (less than one page) addressing the following:
   - Describe your research experience skills.
   - Summarize your experiences using different research methods.
   - List scholarly products such as peer-reviewed conference publications and peer-reviewed publications.
   - Describe data analysis skills and experience using different data analysis software (i.e., SPSS, ENVIVO, SAS).
7. Three (3) Professional References: The letters should be from individuals qualified to assess the following: (Note: At least one of the three letters must be from the candidate’s PRESENT direct supervisor in his/her educational field.)
   - Knowledge in chosen field
   - Motivation and perseverance toward goals
   - Ability to work independently
   - Ability to express thoughts in speech and writing
   - Ability/potential for college teaching
   - Ability to plan and conduct research
8. For International Applicants ONLY: In addition to the above, International applicants will be required to submit the following:
   - English proficiency scores: TOEFL [80], IELTS [level 6.5], or PTE [54], are necessary for applicants who are not U.S. citizens and not from countries where English is the official language. This requirement is waived if the applicant has earned an undergraduate or graduate degree from an institution in the U.S. For more information on the International application process, see this link: http://www.montana.edu/gradschool/policy/admissions_intl.html
   - Proof of funds (if self-funded)
   - Copy of applicant’s passport
   - Degree certificates as well as an English translation for all non-English academic transcripts and credentials. Photocopies can be used to initiate the application process; however, official transcripts/credentials are still required upon admission.

*Note: Applicants may be contacted for an interview by the program specific applicant review committee.

Application Deadlines
Below is the deadline by which all of the application materials for the PhD in Education must be submitted via the online application system. Students matriculate into the PhD program in the fall semester only. Applications to the PhD programs are reviewed once per year at the April 1st deadline. Applications received after the deadline may be reviewed for acceptance on a case-by-case basis.

- Fall Semester: April 1st

*An early review deadline of February 1st has been set for those applicants wanting to be considered for Graduate Assistantships. Graduate Assistantships require students to work on campus 19 hours per week. Applications must be complete for an early review.

Admission Process
Complete applications will be reviewed by members of the Graduate Admissions Committee who then convene to make final admission decisions. Once a decision has been made, the application will be forwarded to The Graduate School for final administrative processing.
Please note that the application review process will begin on the application deadline dates and not before.
