The Gallatin History Museum

Gallatin Historical Society
The Gallatin History Museum of Bozeman, operated by the Gallatin Historical Society, promotes, fosters, and preserves the history of Gallatin County and southwest Montana. Located in the former county jail and listed on the national register of historic places, the museum features dozens of displays on various aspects of local history, including the American Indian, Lewis and Clark, Fort Ellis, fur traders, gold miners, pioneers, and settlers.

Indian tools and arrowheads are shown on the main floor, as is the impact of the Sioux War of 1876 and the trek of the Nez Perce under Chief Joseph in 1877.

The routes used by Lewis and Clark and some of the fauna and animals they discovered are part of a display that also features implements used by fur traders. There are also scale models of wagons, stagecoaches, and even a keelboat.

The Fort Ellis display explores the importance of the military post to the early growth and development of Bozeman. The museum’s gun collection includes rifles and pistols manufactured in the 1800s by Remington and Sharps and a single-bore cannon used in fights against the Sioux nation in the Yellowstone Valley. The agricultural room has tools and implements used by early farmers, including a butter churn, sheep shears, a drill press, and a centrifuge.

An overview of every community in the county is available in the balcony area, as is a display on the history of the Sweet Pea Festival. A turn-of-the-century lady’s parlor shows furniture and keepsakes treasured by 19th century Montana women. Visitors can also learn about the history of Montana State University and the earthquake-prone Gallatin Canyon.

Because the building was once the county jail, visitors will get to view jail cells and even a hanging gallows during their tour. The museum also houses a research center that stores nearly 18,000 historical photographs, as well as documents, newspapers, journals and diaries on local history.
The museum bookstore holds hard-to-find books on southwest Montana history.
