Welcome to Bozeman

Home of Montana State University, Bozeman nests against the Rocky Mountains in the heart of the scenic Gallatin Valley in Southwestern Montana.

Population

- 38,700 with an additional 16,440 Montana State University enrollment during the academic year.

One of the most diverse small towns in the Rocky Mountain West, Bozeman’s residents are an eclectic mix of ranchers, artists, professors, ski enthusiasts and entrepreneurs drawn here by world-class outdoor recreation, Montana State University and a slice of old fashioned Americana. Bozeman prides itself in offering a small town feel with all the amenities and conveniences of a big city.

Elevation & Summer Weather

- Elevation: 4,800 feet
- Average high summer temperatures: 70s and 80s
- Average low summer temperatures: mid 40s and low 50s
- Annual precipitation: 18.61 inches, one-third of which falls during May and June

Bozeman’s climate reflects its mountain valley location. Summers are pleasant, characterized by warm days, cool nights, and an abundance of sunshine. Bozeman is one of the few areas of the country where the average summer climate is comfortable due to the moderate combined heat and humidity. Most summers have seven or fewer days with temperatures exceeding 90 degrees.
