China Studies Minor

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures offers a minor in China Studies (Chinese language and culture). The program's mission is to provide students with the language skill and cultural understanding they need to succeed in a Chinese cultural environment. This program is not designed for teacher certification. The minor requires intermediate Chinese language proficiency and a broad knowledge of Chinese culture, literature, and civilization. A total of 24 credits of coursework is required, including 12 credits in Chinese language, and 12 credits of non-language China-related courses, 9 credits of which are at the upper division level. In addition, as many as 9 credits may be taken from courses about China in other departments. In order to receive the minor, students must successfully complete the following course work:

Language Courses

	CHIN 492	Independent Study
	HSTR 446	Science and Medicine in China
	HSTR 443	Gender in Asia
	AS 403D	Monsoon Asian Civilization
	HSTR 345	Modern China
	CHIN 320IH	History of Chinese Cinema
	ARTH 360	History of Asian Art and Architecture
С	Choose three of the following:
	ANTY 225IS	Culture, Language, and Society
	CHIN 211D	Chinese Culture & Civilization
	RLST 203D	Buddhist Traditions
	HSTR 140D	Modern Asia
	CHIN 130D	Historical and Literary Journey into Modern China
C.	hoose one of the	0	3
	on-language Cou
-	HIN 202D	Intermediate Chinese II	3
С	HIN 201D	Intermediate Chinese I	3
С	HIN 102D	Elementary Chinese II	3
C	HIN 101	Elementary Chinese I	3

** Students who are on a Chinese Government Scholarship or other scholarship to study in China will receive 1-3 study-abroad credits of CHIN193, CHIN293, CHIN393 and/or CHIN493 depending on the courses taken in China. We highly recommend students who are pursuing a China Studies minor to spend a short period of time in China.