

Important Notice to All Students

The following information pertains to student and institutional rights and responsibilities under this catalog:

This general catalog is published by Montana State University as a guide for students, faculty and others interested in the institution. Students are expected to be familiar with all University regulations and information set forth in this publication or any amendment to or modifications thereof.

Montana State University reserves the right to change regulations and to add or withdraw courses at any time during the period this publication is in effect. The institution, with the concurrence of the Board of Regents of Higher Education, also reserves the right to add or withdraw degree programs and to change fees at any time. Effective dates of changes will be determined by the proper authorities and shall apply to prospective students and to those who are already enrolled.

Montana State University places full responsibility upon the student for registering for the proper courses and for fulfilling all degree requirements as set forth in this catalog, as amended from time to time. No agent or employee of the University has the authority to warrant graduation, the attainment of any type of license, or attainment of any other career goal. The institution does not accept any responsibility for delays in graduation or attainment of career goals resulting from errors in registration, cancelled courses, schedule changes, degree requirement changes, or similar related changes, or for errors resulting from consultation with and reliance upon any information acquired from a University employee. Advisors' signatures on preregistration, drop-add or similar forms do not necessarily indicate agreement with or approval of the student's choice of courses nor may they be construed in any way as a warranty that the student's choice of courses is sufficient for graduation or attainment of any career goals.
