

Military Studies Minor

The minor in Military Studies is a 24-29-credit leader development program of study offered through MSU's Norm Asbjornson College of Engineering for students commissioning in through either the Army or Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC). The hallmark of the program is applied leadership; students are taught leadership techniques and implement them in a military context. Each course is progressive, beginning with basic Army and Air Force leadership principles theory. Students ultimately complete their senior level upper division courses by putting those leadership principles into practice while actively leading other students. The Military Studies Minor is only open to Army and Air Force ROTC cadets.

Minor in Military Studies

MSL 205	American Military History	3
MAS 309	Fld Training, 4 Week	4
Choose four of the following:		6-8
MAS 110	Heritage and Values of the United States Air Force I
MAS 111	Heritage and Values of the United States Air Force II
MAS 210	Team and Leadership Fundamentals I
MAS 211	Team and Leadership Fundamentals II
MSL 101	Introduction to the Army
MSL 102	Foundations of Leadership
MSL 201	Leadership and Ethics
MSL 202	Army Doctrine and Decision Making
Choose five Upper Division Military Courses:		15
MAS 310	Leading People and Effective Communication I
MAS 311	Leading People and Effective Communication II
MAS 410	National Security and Preparation for Active Duty I
MAS 411	National Security and Preparation for Active Duty II
MSL 301	Training Management and the Warfighting Functions
MSL 302	Applied Leadership in Small Unit Operations
MSL 401	The Army Officer
MSL 402	Company Grade Leadership
Total Credits		24-29

* If a student is not accepted into MAS 309 by the respective military service, the student can substitute an additional upper division military course along with MSL 106.