

Minor in Philosophy (Non-Teaching)

Program Learning Outcomes

- Explain the views of important historical figures in philosophy.
- Write clearly structured papers in support of a philosophical thesis.
- Identify and avoid formal and informal fallacies.
- Identify and explain the views and arguments of others in written texts.
- Analyze arguments.
- Present critiques that effectively engage with arguments.

Required

PHL 236Q	Logic
----------	-------

Choose at least one of the following (both are recommended):

PHL 361RH	Hist of Philo:Ancient/Medieval
-----------	--------------------------------

PHL 362	History of Philosophy: Modern
---------	-------------------------------

15 credits of additional Philosophy electives, nine credits of which must be upper division. 15

PHL 101IH	Intro Phil: Reason and Reality
-----------	--------------------------------

PHL 103D	Philosophy and Popular Culture
----------	--------------------------------

PHL 110IH	Intro Ethics: Good and Evil
-----------	-----------------------------

PHL 205CS	Other Animals
-----------	---------------

PHL 212RH	Morality and Society
-----------	----------------------

PHL 242CS	Scnc/Psuedo Scnc & Subjectivty
-----------	--------------------------------

PHL 255D	Philosophy and Culture
----------	------------------------

PHL 270D	Philosophies of Asia
----------	----------------------

PHL 303	Approaches to Epistemology
---------	----------------------------

PHL 304	Metaphysics
---------	-------------

PHL 308	Language and the World
---------	------------------------

PHL 310	Moral Theory
---------	--------------

PHL 312	Contemporary Moral Problems
---------	-----------------------------

PHL 317	Law and Morality
---------	------------------

PHL 321	Philosophy & Biomedical Ethics
---------	--------------------------------

PHL 322	Philosophy & Envirnmntl Ethics
---------	--------------------------------

PHL 327	Aesthetics and the Arts
---------	-------------------------

PHL 328	Philosophy and Film
---------	---------------------

PHL 350RH	State, Community & Individual
-----------	-------------------------------

PHL 353	Philosophy and Technology
---------	---------------------------

PHL 354	Philosophy of Race
---------	--------------------

PHL 383	Reason and Revolution
---------	-----------------------

PHL 385	Existentialism and After
---------	--------------------------

PHL 491	Special Topics
---------	----------------

PHL 492	Independent Study
---------	-------------------

Total Credits

21